I	History of this Fact Sheet

1 Introduction

The original form of this Fact Sheet was a text file that contained personal notes about the different media versions of all Mekong Delta albums that I was able to find, just for my personal record collection. Over the years, this list grew bigger and bigger. I thought that this information might be useful for other fans/collectors as well, so I decided to share the file. But just media version information seemed a bit too little, so some more content like album information, chronology, trivia, etc. was added to make it a fact sheet. After a while, I realized that it was very difficult to list the exact title lengths of the songs. There are lots of differences between the individual releases, so the only way to get going was to list them all. This is how it all started. I hope that you find this information useful.

The Wikipedia article once described Mekong Delta as follows:

Mekong Delta is a German metal band, formed in 1985 by Ralf Hubert. Their style is a mixture of progressive and thrash metal, including strong affinities to classical, expressionism and new music. The musical complexity of their music varies from album to album. The band was founded with the goal to 'musically outshine' all then-current, independent releases.

2 Albums

The following section lists all Mekong Delta releases. The credits are listed as they did appear on the albums. Please see section 7 for the musicians' real names. The different releases are abbreviated as follows:

(none)	No release type means the initial release.
RM	Remasters
PR	Promotional release
JP	Japanese release
PD	Vinyl picture disc
TP	Test pressing
DD	Digital distribution (iTunes, Amazon, etc.)
DPLF	Special Digipak release of Lurking Fear: audio CD + DVD Live in Frankfurt 1991
JCLF	Special Jewel Case release of Lurking Fear: audio CD + DVD Live in Frankfurt 1991, with an Obi "Progressive Thrash Metal" on it. On the back of the Obi is a text in Russian language.
FTMOEZ	Failure pressing of "The Music of Erich Zann" with the "Holy Moses" cover.
LAAEAC	Re-issue of "Live at an Exhibition" from the record labels SPV and Showtime in 2016 with an alternative cover in a Digipack sleeve. The word "Remastered" has been printed on the back side.

TBM Ralf Hubert compiled all Mekong Delta related information from 1987-2008 in a huge eBook called "The Book Mekong". This book is currently unreleased.

IWATE First iTunes distribution of "Wanderer on the Edge of Time" with combined tracks and wrong title. It was mistakenly called "Wanderer at the Edge of Time". It also contains a spelling mistake in the first song title ("Introduktion"). The release has been corrected and replaced in 2013.

LAAEAD Alternative digital version with a green cover on iTunes and Amazon, issued by Pleasuretone Digital in 2010.

KDP Kaleidoscope digital parallel release on Amazon. This release was issued by Zardo and is EUR 1,50 less than the current Steamhammer release. Both versions are offered in parallel.

LFA Different digital release on Amazon in 2015.

II Different digital release on iTunes, even both issuers are Steamhammer.

TGBTP Test pressing of The Gnome without the picture print; just black vinyl.

IAMDVD CD Version of "In A Mirror Darkly" which has been put into the vinyl release as a bonus. It just came in a white paper CD sleeve.

PAR Edition of "The Principle Of Doubt (Ambitions)" (disk 1 only), which was released in 2011 by Eagle Rock in a 10-CD sampler called "Rock Box". This CD is called "Mekong Delta - Best Of". See Trivia section for further information.

FLF The first 6.000 copies of Lurking Fear are failure pressings. The CD manufacturer has mistakenly used the wrong master. The CD contains a collection of children's songs instead of Lurking Fear.

PAAEFE First edition of the "Pictures At An Exhibition" Digipack release with the reference to the very first Mekong Delta website <http://huizen.dds.nl/~pjotr>. The URL was mistakenly printed as <http://huizen.ddsnl/~pjotr>. The later Digipack release refers to <http://www.flnet.nl/~mekong>.

CD Track times have been measured with iTunes.

3 Media Versions

The following table contains all known versions of Mekong Delta media. The first column indicates the source of information: A "+" means confirmation by my personal collection, "-" means either a confirmation by a picture that has been sent to me or has been found on the internet, or an offer of an online service (e.g. iTunes album). A "?" means that I heard of its existence, but have no confirmation so far. The second column contains the media type, which can be "LP", "CD", "CDROM", "TP" (tape), "DV" (DVD) or "DD" (digital distribution, e.g. iTunes or Amazon). The third column contains information of the specific release, if applicable. Next is the release year of the media version, followed by the record label and the item number, then additional identification numbers. The last column contains the byte length of the DDP (Audio CD) or ISO (CDROM or DVD) image (if applicable).

The abbreviations of the releases are listed in section 2. "DD" does not apply as a release in this section, but is a media type.

8 Pseudonyms

During the 80s, the line-up of the group was to be "the best kept secret in the world". The project participants decide to keep everything about the band a secret, assuming German musicians would not be accepted internationally. Therefore, and because of other legal issues, all members used pseudonyms in the 80s. This section lists all pseudonyms and their corresponding real names. Abbreviations of the artists' names are also included.

Uwe B.	Uwe Baltrusch
Doug Lee	Douglas Lee
Patrick Duval	Uli Kusch
Bjoern Eklund	Ralf Hubert
Ralph Hubert	Ralf Hubert
Jake Jenkins	Peavy Wagner
Mark Kaye	Uwe Baltrusch
Keil	Wolfgang Borgmann
Gordon Perkins	Joerg Michael
Vincent St. Johns	Reiner Kelch
Leo Szpigiel	Leszek Szpigiel
Rolf Stein	Frank Fricke

9 Trivia

Please note that these entries are in no particular order.

* The original name of the band was "Zardoz", but was then changed to Mekong Delta.

* Ralf played in a project called "The X-Mas Project". They recorded one album with the same name including metal versions of Christmas songs. This record featured members of Holy Moses, Living Death, Rage, Steeler, Lions Breed, Fact, and Mekong Delta. Bjoern Eklund (Ralf's pseudonym) was the only credited Mekong member. He also produced the album.

- * All master prints and films were heavily damaged due to a broken pipe in the warehouse. All material had to be re-created by Ralf.
- * There were rumors that Ralf fled to Trukey, or even died after Mekong's disappear in the late 90s.
- * Mekong Deltas appearance on the Rock Box sampler is pretty obscure. There are ten CDs with 10 different bands, 1 CD per band. The bands are: Asia, Atomic Rooster, Little River Band, Sham 69, Barclay James Harvest, Ian Gillan Band, Uriah Heep, Ultravox, Wishbone Ash and.. Mekong Delta. There is a Rockabilly-guy with a motorcycle on the cover.
- * The vinyl edition of Kaleidoscope is limited to 333 copies.
- * The slogan for the DVD Live in Frankfurt was "The Past of the Future".
- * The cover of "The Music Of Erich Zann" is an oil painting which is still in possession of Ralf Hubert. Dimensions: 50 cm (width) x 72.5 cm (height).
- * Uwe Baltrusch played Dunlop Picks of type 472R Tortex Jazz H3, 1.14 mm during the Kaleidoscope Tour in 1993.
- * The support act for the Kaleidoscope Tour '93 was a German band called "Life Artist".
- * The set list of the Kaleidoscope Tour '93 (at least for one date) was:

- 01 - Innocent
- 02 - Kill the Enemy
- 03 - No Fried of Mine
- 04 - Sphere Eclipse
- 05 - Night on a Bare Mountain
- 06 - The Hut of Baba Yaga
- 07 - Memories of Tomorrow
- 08 - Heartbeat
- 09 - Shades of Doom
- 10 - Sabre Dance
- 11 - Shadow Walker
- 12 - Dances of Death
- 13 - Transgressor
- 14 - Dance on a Volcano

- * "Bjoern Eklund" was a werewolf character in a book series called "Demon Killer".
- * Wolfgang Borgmann was never seen as a permanent band member. He is an old friend of Ralf's and just helped him out repeatedly.
- * "The Principle of Doubt" is based on the book "The Chronicles Of Thomas Covenant The Unbeliever" by Stephen Donaldson. Same applies to the album "Visions Fugitives".
- * "Black Betty" (Roud 11668) is a 20th-century African-American work song often credited to Huddie "Lead Belly" Ledbetter as the author, though the earliest recordings are not by him. Some sources claim it is one of Lead Belly's many adaptations of earlier folk material; in this case an 18th-century marching cadence about a flintlock musket. There are numerous recorded versions, including acapella, folk, and rock arrangements. The best known modern recordings are rock versions by Ram Jam, Tom Jones, and Spiderbait, all of which were hits.
- * "Pictures At An Exhibition" was composed for piano in 1874 by Modest Mussorgsky.
- * "Toccata" is dedicated to Andrea.
